Questions and Answers

1. What do Ordinations do?

- Ordinations are an energy process. You link with a Rishi during an Ordination—the Rishi has full 15-dimensional codes in it—and you become a vessel that can transmit 12th-dimensional frequency to people, once you are ordained to certain levels. Ordination will activate, at least temporarily, all of the Hova Bodies, and bring them into activation along with your/the ordinand's 12-Strand Matrix. You won't hold all the frequency at once because if you haven't gotten there naturally, your body won't tolerate it. But the Ordination process is able to provide enough of a burst of frequency that you can activate the fields of other people, and begin the Hova Body activation process in others.

2. An ordained Melchizedek minister has an energetic field bond with a Rishi in Harmonic Universe (HU) 5. What are the benefits of a Rishi Bond?

- A Rishi Bond speeds up the process of activating the DNA strands in the 12-Strand matrix, which would normally take many, many cycles in the Time Matrix.
- What the Rishi does is sustain a high-frequency field for you. They sustain a Pillar of Light between you and HU-5 that you can't quite build yet on your own until you've cycled enough to get your Hova Bodies aligned. They will hold that Pillar of Light for you so you can accelerate the process of Hova Body alignment.
- The Rishi will work with you to clear the Karmic Imprint as fast as possible without throwing your system into chaos.

3. Why did the Guardian Alliance send the Azurite Council of the Melchizedek Cloister family into Harmonic Universe 1?

- Because of the distortion that's been happening with some of the Melchizedeks down here now. The Melchizedeks are one of the primary targets for infiltration by the Illuminati matrices because of the information the Melchizedeks carry. That's scary, because those Melchizedeks don't know they're infiltrated. They'll have 99% great material—great stuff that'll help you—and that 1% will be shifted to become its opposite. And that's the tactic that's being used. That's why the Guardian Alliance sent in the Azurite Council. That's why they sent in the Melchizedek Cloister family: to try to get things back on line.

4. Usually the secrets of the Melchizedeks are only available to people willing to spend years training at Spiritual Schools. This knowledge is now being handed to everybody. Why is this so?

- To help people protect themselves from what's going on here [ie. the distortions and infiltrations]. At this point the knowledge and the opportunity for bonding with a Rishi is being offered to everybody, because they know people here need protection, and because the Rishi want to see us get free. They want to see us evolve to our potential. A lot of the Rishi that are the most behind wanting this whole thing fixed are the ones who had little rebellious children in the Illuminati matrices. They're endorsing the program better than anyone because the Rishis were never corrupted on their level. It was the decision on the Avatar level to reverse their matrices. So the Illuminati Rishi are trying to help their members home and get them healed, and get them aligned. So they ordain them, too, because once you get the field bond it will start to purge out things that are not harmonic in your field. If you underwent Monadic Reversal, Ordination will begin the process of bringing the codes back to their original place. If you are born in a matrix that is an Illuminati matrix and you don't know it, you won't be able to have those codes reversed while you're in the body this time—the body can't tolerate the stress. But as soon as you have your natural end to this lifetime, you will be able to go into a full Rishi bond and get plugged in. So no matter who you are, Ordinations are really helpful.

5. The original "path" you came in on is called what? And what is the significance of this "path" in relation to an Ordination/Rishi Bond?

- To accept an Ordination means you have to be fully committed to being on what's called your Heroic Probability—that was the original path that you came in on—because that's the only path that has a high enough vibration in your body pattern to keep a bond with a Rishi, to sustain and hold that bond energetically. If you go off your Heroic Probability, you will get advised not to. It's not as if you fall off and then you fall apart. But the Rishi is transmitting higher frequency into your field, it's giving you a jumpstart on what you normally can do. If you step off the path, all of a sudden your frequency drops really fast, and so does the connection with your Rishi, but you still have lots of extra energy flying around your system that you wouldn't have had in there if you hadn't had Rishi help. So it gives you a lot more frequency to process and it can be very difficult to process that. It's like errant frequency running through the Emotional Body and Mental Body. So a person who would accept an Ordination would be someone who's ready to connect to their own Heroic Probability: "What I came here to do," "What my God Seed wanted me to do," "What my Soul wanted me to do"—rather than just what the Ego thinks is right. They're willing to open the lines of communication so they could start to hear the Higher Self while it was talking to them. They're guided, and if you're having a problem or an issue, that's where you turn for counsel. You learn to go inward. There's nobody out here that's qualified to counsel you and to guide you as what you'll ultimately find within yourself when you learn to open doors.

6. Before accepting an Ordination/Rishi Bond, why should you seriously consider if it is spiritually important enough for you?

- The only negative you could say is attached to the Rishi Bonds is that if you break your bond, you're going to have more frequency in your field to process, and it will be very difficult to process that coupled with the frequencies that are going to be coming through the Earth Grid in the next 20 years while staying at least emotionally centered. So before you make a decision to go ahead with a Rishi Bond, think about whether it is spiritually important enough for you to really do this. Because this is real; we're not kidding. There are energy transmissions that are given in this. You need to be aware that you can still do what you want out here, but you do it in a way that you've got to say "Okay, Higher Self/Whole Self (raise this to the level you want it), point me where I should be in my Divine Right Order." You assume this path of your Divine Right Order in any moment. What you should be doing with yourself ideally that would contribute to your greatest joy and development, and everyone else's around you—you aim for that, that Heroic Probability, which is your alignment with the God-Source. If you do that and you're committed to that, and you take it very seriously, you're not going to have a problem with the Ordination, you're not going to have a problem with the Rishi Bond.
- If you're ready, you'll know it, you'll feel it. And if you're not, that's okay too: that's what Initiations are for. That's where you just get the codes transmitted and you begin to have your process activated. Initiation doesn't have the same protection levels involved, it doesn't have the same acceleration levels involved, but it's a beginning. So if you're a little squeamish about "Am I gonna be able to really stay in my Heroic Probability and not crash my DNA by falling out of my bond with the Rishi," you might want to do the Initiation instead. And you don't have to have either. You can just work with your own God Seed, and leave it at that. But the program works—it's amplified, each step you take. It will give you more focus, more strength, more clarity, faster than any one step alone.

7. Why can channelling be dangerous? Why is it important to develop a Sealed Channel?

- There's one thing that you will need to learn how to do, and eventually will, and that's called "opening a channel." Eventually you need to learn to hear your Higher Parts. Now, many Melchizedeks teach that channelling is bad, and the reason they're teaching that is because if it's not a Sealed Channel, it can be very dangerous. And you're better off not channelling at all than taking a chance on having something infiltrate you and misguide you into harming yourself or someone else. At this point it's very important that people learn to open to that guidance, because if things get a little rocky here as we go through these next 20 years, there may not be any workshops to go to and we may be distracted with other things. If we knew we could access guidance right through our heads without having to turn on the television or call up somebody to ask "What do I do next?," you'd feel a lot safer and you'd also take much more effective action.

Opening the channel is a gift if it's done right, and doing it right is doing it on what's called a Sealed Channel. That is a channel that's sealed into the God Seed. For most people that will be what's called a Melchizedek Sealed Channel, and it's just a matter of working with the energy to reconfirm and make sure that channelled frequency is activated. You've activated it in the body and it creates that link. It creates a conduit of frequency that information can be moved into and any distortion in that information will be purged out. It will block out things that are trying to come in and infiltrate you. There are levels to the Sealed Channel. If you work with the God Seed alone, you can get a relatively Sealed Channel, better than just trying to channel without Sealing. Because what you usually get when channelling without Sealing are the 4th dimensional beings that don't know any more than we do, and sometimes less.

- You can Seal the channel with the God Seed just by doing energy work and running the meditations, if you happen to be of one of the pulses of consciousness that came purely out of the Melchizedek Cloister, which means you were created on the human vibration to begin with. In that case, you will have a Melchizedek Sealed Channel. But if you are from one of the pulses of consciousness that came out of another God Seed, that's fine—they're all God Seeds—but it's a different configuration of energy. The Melchizedek God Seed can process that energy, but it won't guarantee that you won't still pick up some distortion. There are some matrices that have distortions due to problems at the Avatar level. So it's not a pure Seal unless you happen to be of the Melchizedek Cloister family, and you'd have to trace the whole signature to find that out.
- If there is a disorder to a communication of frequency coming in, the Seal would attempt to reorder or harmonize the frequency, and if that was not possible it would bounce the communication off. So this is what Sealing will do. It will not stop you from talking to anybody in the universe you want; you can talk to anybody you want to out there once you open the lines to channel.

8. What is Channelling all about?

- Channelling is not that hard to do—we do it all the time, we just don't realize it. We're always translating energy signatures, and that's what channelling is about. It's about pulling in energy signatures. You could channel a plant; they do have consciousness, and some of them are very evolved.
- You could learn to channel just about anything if you realize your body is built to move energy through it and to translate that energy. And all you need to do is point your consciousness toward something, move your consciousness into it—because remember, you're a Morphogenetic Field and so is everything else. Solid things are illusions. There's no separation. If you just move your consciousness in a direction, you're moving into the Morphogenetic Field of something else or someone else. You'll get an imprint. Bring your consciousness back to you, and you will have something to read. There are levels of channelling. There's live channelling, where one of the “higher-ups” comes into your body; they'll walk in, and you go to sleep and they walk around in your body. Some people do that, but it is not advised. There are very special contracts that will allow those kinds of channelling, but they tend to be very hard on the physical body and burn out the circuits fast. Most full body channels lose about 20 years of their life span. It's not something you might want to rush into right away. And you don't need it, because all you need to do is open the lines of communication.

- Once in a while Ashayana channels Azara, but not in her full body—just her vocal chords. Azara is a member of Ashayana's Oversoul family, so their codes are very similar. Azara often leads the meditations that Ashayana has not learned yet. Azara is of the Melchizedek Cloister line, so there's not a problem with being compromised. When you start to open to your Soul family and your Oversoul family, that kind of channelling is okay, and is permitted. The Melchizedek Sealing will stop 4th dimensional interference from people who just happened to get thrown out of their bodies (they got hit by a car, etc.) and are floating around in the fourth dimension, not realizing what to do with their consciousness. They're trying to find somewhere to put it. If you open a channel and they happen to feel a frequency coming from you, and you have the intention "I am open to receive, will someone talk to me?" They probably will. They'll probably do more than talk; they'll probably say "Aah! A body! Something to put myself in!" And they do that not because they're trying to be mean but because they're scared. They've crossed over without knowing what happened.
- You don't need astral (4th dimensional) interference. Because right now the Illuminatis and the ETs and the government people that they're manipulating are using the 4th dimensional frequencies for their little mind control. You do not want to go to 4th dimensional frequency unless you have a full line-up above it that will clear out any distortions in that dimension. So that's what the Sealed Channel programs are about.

9. What was the significance of the planned group trip to Giza, Egypt in relation to the Stellar Activation Cycle?

- At that time, the Earth was approaching the opening of the 4th Primary Vortice on the planet as part of the Stellar Activation Cycle. That is when 4th dimensional frequency starts to enter the Earth's Grid, rather than just the planet's core. It is part of the Ascension Cycle in which the frequency of the planet rises very quickly through progressive opening of the Vortices. The 4th Vortice is located in Giza. The Great Pyramid and the Sphinx are in the 4th Vortice area. Down underneath them is where the core of that Vortice can be accessed. It was a key point for the stability of the grids, the Earth's Grids. And it was a key point that the Illuminati were trying to mess up. So the group was guided to set a field there that helped protect the Stellar Activation Site.

10. There are three basic types of Families of Consciousness. How is your personal Family of Consciousness determined? Name the three types and describe them.

- Your personal Family of Consciousness is determined by performing a Betcha Hova Scan [see Vocabulary section below].
- On the planet right now there are three basic types of people's gene codes matrices on which all their other personal gene code stuff is built. But their base underlying morphogenetic gene code will be either what's called the Diamond

Sun Code, which is the pure light codes that have the full link through which that being can link with its Christed Self on Harmonic Universe 4 and can connect with the Rishi. Some of the Diamond Sun codes may be distorted because of the stuff that's been done to us here, but at least they're still there, at least you came in on that signature. There are others who have something called a Sun of Belil code: it has half and half, or somewhere near percentages like that, reversed strands and regular strands. And then you have something called the Black Sun codes, which are the pure beings born out of an Illuminati matrix and have a polarization and reversal in them.

11. What did the number "666" originally stand for?

- There are a number of correlations and a number of interpretations of this particular number that have been given, and there are correspondences that are built into the temples of Egypt and all sorts of things. What the "666" originally stood for was something called the Templar Axion Seal in the Illuminati matrix. It was a DNA seal that the Guardian races put on the 6th DNA strand: the 6th overtone and the 6th base tone of the 6th DNA strand. As a result of the Templar Axion Seal those born out of the Illuminati matrix could not ground their Avatars in the physical body down here. They could not ground anything more than sixth-dimensional consciousness and could only bring in their Archetype level identity if they had incarnates here. They can't bring their full Avatars in because that would be worse than the subtle influence that's been brought down from the higher levels. "666" is the code that is always associated with the Anti-Christ. It does have mathematical correspondences with other things, but the "666" coding is the gene code that goes with the Illuminati matrices.

12. Describe Rishi Communication.

- Rishi don't channel like normal things channel. If you get used to channelling on a Sealed Channel program, you'll hit levels where first you'll get almost a telepathic impression: "Did I hear that? Must've been my own thoughts... That must've been me. No, it must be my subconscious." You go through that for a while. Then you start to be able to really feel "Alright, this is probably something communicating with me, or some higher part of me or whatever." After a while you will "feel-hear," because it's not hearing voices in your head. A lot of psychology people like to say "Oh, you channel—you hear voices in your head, do you?" You know, like "What prescription might we give you for that problem..."
- First of all, you don't hear the Rishi in your head; it's not like hearing out here. It's a little different. The only time they'll do voices in your head is if it's something really important or you're in danger and you're not paying attention. Then they'll do that; they can do it by triggering certain things, such as your brain chemistry. But usually their communication is a felt hearing, almost like you can see that way, too. You can close your eyes and imagine a picture of something: see absolutely nothing, yet you "see-feel" it exactly in detail—you can tell what color it is, what shape it is. There's a "see-feel" and a "see-hear" that goes with your Inner Senses. So you will get that with the Rishi first, usually. If you get a - line of verbal communication—if you’re going through a process in which you’re going to work with a stack of guides, which means you’ll get one on the 5th dimension or the 7th dimension—they’ll give you a chain of guiding, parts of your identity. Or if your identity has problems on those levels, they’ll send somebody else in to serve as your guide to get you into linking with the Rishi, and you may get verbal communication. Just like talking to somebody here, but it won’t be the loud stuff; it’ll be that kind of telepathic energy-vibration-impulse that yes, it sounds like words, but my ears don’t hear it.

- When you get into real Rishi communication, it’s direct cognition—you can feel bursts of energy. You can feel transmissions of light that carry huge amounts of data on them. It’s like you can step-down the whole process of using words that take too long, and you just get it. During international workshops the Rishis transmit through the fields of the Speakers very gentle balls of energy that will attach to whoever in the room has frequency high enough to start pulling it. It will leave little packages of data for you in the form of light. And that data will translate (once you get used to translating) sometimes into a verbal communication or sometimes you “just get it” and you get this whole big awakening, and you feel like all of a sudden you know all about a certain thing. That’s some of the things you will look forward to when you begin to channel.

Vocabulary

1. Ordination:

The purpose of receiving Ordinations is to expedite DNA activation. The process is performed by someone who has the ability to run specific frequencies. This individual will connect with the Soul of the individual desiring Ordination and ask permission to continue with the ordination.

A frequency bridge is then created between the one being Ordained and their Highest God Seed Self. The Highest God Seed Self will send the energies into the one being Ordained via the person doing the Ordination to release the Cranial-Sacral Seals in Chakras 2 and 8, the Will Centers, so the individual will be able to bring those frequencies in on their own.

A Level 1 Ordination bonds one with the Personal Identity Rishi Level, and begins the process of activating DNA strands 4–6 for the process of Alpha Hova Body merger and Soul Integration, through which Soul Awareness embodies within the physical body.

2. Rishi Bond:

When you let a Rishi link with your energetic field during an Ordination.

3. Merkaba Star [Star of David]:

The Merkaba Star represents the symbol code that controls the 12th dimension, the Christed level of identity. That is the highest level that can be fully embodied in the human gene code. It is used in energy exercises to create a protective seal of one's frequencies

4. Hova Bodies:

Our 8 Stations of Identity (Morphogenetic Bodies) in our multidimensional anatomy of human consciousness. Five are within the Time Matrix and 3 within the Energy Matrix. Each is a 3-Dimensional Electromagnetic Domain created by the Scalar Shields that serve as stations of dimensionalized consciousness.

5. Stellar Activation Cycle:

An Ascension Cycle in which the frequency of the planet rises very quickly through progressive opening of the planetary Vortices.

6. Illuminati:

Humans and other hybrid races who serve as Fallen Angelic puppets and are being manipulated by fear for personal survival and a desire for acquisition of power to prevent pain and create personal pleasure. The Illuminati are covertly metaphysically motivated towards the One World Order Fallen Angelics' Master Plan.

7. Rishi:

The Rishi Identity corresponds to the Raja Hova Body Level of Identity in Density 5, Dimensions 13-14-15 of the Time Matrix.

8. God Seed:

Within Source, at the level of the God Seed, there are created sets of God Seeds (12 in each set). The God Seed is imbued with the characteristics of consciousness possessed by the Yunasai (God Source), and thus creates within itself smaller constructs of consciousness that reflect the structures set by the Yunasai, a process of exponential fractalization. The God Seed represents the Source Family of Gestalt Consciousness within which the levels of individuated identity have their being. The Yunasai creates many God Seeds, and in relation to the structure of our Cosmic Order, there are 24 (2 sets of 12) Primary God Seed Collectives within our cosmos and universes manifest. They are known as Yusette Identities, and exist in a state of perpetual At-one-ment with the Mind of God.

9. Betcha Hova Scan:

The Betcha Hova Scan reads the personal gene code matrix to determine the Family of Consciousness [which matrix a person is out of]. To perform a Betcha Hova Scan one has to be able to perceive from the 4th Hova Body. The matrix would be seen as a starburst of energy that has 12 strands. This is a technique that is part of the Flame Body Activation and Shadow Body Healing series. See:
